

FLORIDA

INTERNATIONAL MAGAZINE

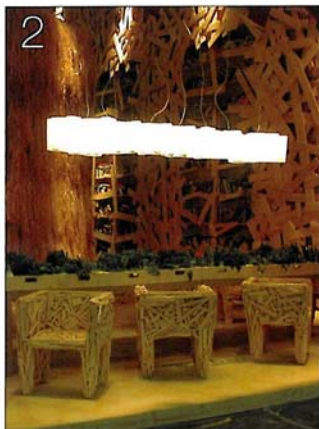

EVENTS

1

BASEL & BEYOND

Art fairs of all flavors and sizes for that first crazy week of December

2

3

4

31st Street and Midtown Boulevard in the Wynwood Art District. Pictured: Hey, why should everyone look like Mao? by Riyas Komu, Sumukha Gallery. Tickets are $15. 212/268-6148.

www.artasiafair.com. 4. Who's That By? Leave it to the Ritz-Carlton South Beach to put a fun spin on art collecting. The Masters Mystery Art Show, December 3-6, offers guests the opportunity to purchase 6x9-inch artworks by more than 300 established, emerging and celebrity artists from 31 countries for $50 each. Past years' auctions have included work by Whoopi Goldberg, Rosie O'Donnell, Andy Garcia, Bernadette Peters, Gloria and Emilio Estefan and even Madonna's daughter, Lola Ciccone Leon. Last year, actress Lucy Liu, pictured left, bought 20. The catch: artists are only revealed after purchase. The best of the bunch goes at an invite-only cocktail party on December 3.

Proceeds from the event, which was started by Martin Elotergui and the Lowenstein family, go to benefit the Masters in Fine Arts program at Florida International University. 305/348-2897.

www.mastersmystery.com.

WWW.FLORIDAINTERNATIONALMAG.COM